

1. Overview

International bookings are subject to fare rules, immigration, and taxation regulations. Cancellation charges vary by route, fare class, and ticketing agent.

2. Free cancellation window

- Some international fares allow a 24-hour risk-free cancellation when booked at least 7 days prior to departure. Check fare rules at time of booking.

3. Standard cancellation fees (International)

- Cancellation more than 30 days before departure: Fee = USD 50 or equivalent + taxes.
- Cancellation 7–30 days before departure: Fee = 30% of fare + taxes.
- Cancellation within 7 days of departure: No refund for non-refundable fares; partially refundable or flexible fares may incur smaller fees.

4. Carrier and government taxes

- Refunds are subject to deduction of carrier-imposed fees and non-refundable government/airport taxes where applicable.

5. Refund timelines & method

- International refunds can take 4–8 weeks depending on payment method and banks involved.
- For tickets issued by travel agents, refunds will generally be routed via the issuing agent.

6. Force majeure & disruptions

- If the carrier cancels or significantly changes the flight, passengers may be entitled to rebooking, refund, or compensation per applicable local regulations.
